

VAWDASV & Complex Needs

Half or Full Day Course

*Option for NTF accreditation via Agored Cymru

This course provides an introduction to the impact of violence against women, domestic abuse and sexual violence (VAWDASV) for individuals with co-existing multiple support needs. It increases understanding of the importance of anti-discriminatory practices when working with individuals who have experienced VAWDASV and have co-existing multiple support needs; as well as how to support them.

The course looks specifically on the impact of mental health, substance misuse, homelessness/housing problems, exploitation, poverty and the criminal justice system.

Course Aims

- Recognise the varied co-existing support needs for individuals who experience VAWDASV
- Develop techniques to treat equally
- Develop knowledge on supporting individuals experiencing VAWDASV with complex needs
