

Mental Health and Housing

Duration: 7 Hours

Cost: £1250

Delivery: In Person or Online

Poor mental health and housing issues are often linked. This course addresses the critical intersection between these two fundamental aspects of well-being. This course is designed for professionals who work with individuals facing challenges in both areas, aiming to improve their ability to provide effective support.

Course Aims:

- To improve understanding of the interplay between mental health and housing.
- To enhance skills in identifying and responding to mental health challenges in housing contexts.
- To promote effective collaboration between mental health and housing services.
- To improve the outcomes of people who are experiencing mental health difficulties, and housing difficulties.

Course Outcomes:

Learners will have:

- Improved ability to identify and assess mental health needs.
- Increased knowledge of Housing resources and systems.
- Enhanced skills in providing person-centred support.
- Improved ability to apply trauma informed practise.
- Increased awareness of legal and ethical considerations.

Details

In- person	Online
£1250	£1250
Maximum 18 Attendees	Maximum 25 Attendees
Full Day 30 minute lunch break plus 2 comfort breaks	Full Day 30 minute lunch break plus 2 comfort breaks

*Prices exclude VAT

A well-presented course – lots of information – but explained really well. I really liked the practical and helpful ways to address barriers, knowing the better you know the service user the more info you have to motivate.

Book Your Training Today

To book one of our courses, or to request more information, or receive a no-obligation quote, please get in touch with our friendly team at Learn@storicymru.org.uk or use the enquiry form on our website. We'll be happy to assist you with any questions and help you find the training that best suits your needs.

Bespoke Training Tailored to You

If you have specific training needs, we would be delighted to collaborate with you to develop a programme that aligns with your objectives and empowers your team to excel.

Please reach out to us to discuss how we can support your organisation's growth and success.