

Professional Boundaries

Duration: Half Day and Full Day Course Available

Cost: £700/£1250

Delivery: In Person or Online

This course looks at what boundaries are, how we establish them, why we need them, how they may be stretched and what to do if this happens. It is useful for any public facing role. We adapt our content depending on the role of the learners and can include your organisation's policies and procedures if needed.

Course Aims:

To explore what boundaries are and why they are useful
To gain confidence in establishing and maintaining professional boundaries
To know what to do when our boundaries are stretched or broken.

Course Outcomes:

Learners will have

- Understand the purpose of professional boundaries
- Understand who professional boundaries are between
- Know how to set boundaries
- Know what to do in cases where boundaries are crossed.
