

The Effect of Domestic Abuse on Children and Young People

Duration: 7 Hours

Cost: £1250

Delivery: In Person or Online

This course will raise awareness of the complex nature of domestic abuse and the effect it has on the family unit as a whole. Develop your understanding of how manipulative and collusive tactics used by perpetrators affect children & young people, their roles within the family, and their behaviours.

Course Aims:

- To increase understanding of how violence against women, domestic abuse and sexual violence (VAWDASV) can be experienced by children and young people.
- To explore how to support children and young people in relation to disclosure.
- To increase understanding of how services support the needs of children and young people affected by domestic abuse and sexual violence.

Course Outcomes:

Learners will:

- Understand prevalence of DACYP.
- Identify links to other forms of abuse.
- Understand reporting & disclosure issues.
- Know where to find resources and support.
